

A multinational trading company, active player within both energy and gas Romanian markets, is looking for young, experienced and talented individuals interested in joining the sales team of the company.

The major tasks to be performed by Sales Representative on a daily basis consist of:

- ✓ active search of customers and scheduling of sales visits,
- ✓ offering of customized solution to existing/potential new clients,
- ✓ negotiation of selling contracts,
- ✓ providing commercial and technical support.

The company major requirements for candidates that qualify for this opening position are:

- ✓ minimum 5 years of experience in sales,
- ✓ relevant knowledge about the Romanian energy market,
- ✓ excellent presentation and communication skills in both English and Romanian.
- ✓ University degree, proactive approach and driving license B category are mandatory.

Attractive salary package along with possibility to growth in a dynamic creating working environment are offered.

Interested candidates should submit their CV with a short letter of intention and updated contact details until 28th of February, 2014 to the following email address office.ro@axpo.com or fax number 021 230 33 35.

Please be advised that only shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview.